COMMUNITY MEETING SCHEDULED FOR PROPOSED ROAD IMPROVEMENTS ALONG 57TH AVENUE

GLENDALE, Ariz. – Residents are invited to a neighborhood meeting from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 22 to review proposed bridge and roadway improvements along 57th Avenue from Union Hills Drive across Skunk Creek.

The meeting will be held at Foothills Library in the Roadrunner Room, located at 19055 N. 57th Ave.

The proposed project includes replacing the existing low-flow crossing of Skunk Creek with a bridge, a multi-use path beneath the new bridge, creek bank protection, streetlights, landscaping and irrigation. The proposed bridge will provide safe access for vehicles, bicycles and pedestrian traffic during a storm.

During the meeting, residents will be able to review proposed plans and speak with representatives from the city and design consultants.
